Printed by The Sheridan Press on Forest Stewardship Council™ certified paper.

California History is the top-flight historical journal of California. As such, it is committed to publishing well researched, thoughtfully argued, pieces that go well beyond a purely descriptive narrative. Published quarterly, the journal accepts electronic submissions year-round through the University of California Press website:

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Length: Manuscripts, including endnotes, must not exceed 14,000 words.

Abstracts: All article submissions must be accompanied by an abstract no longer than 500 words.

Formatting: All text, including quotations and endnotes, should be prepared in double-spaced typescript according to The Chicago Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press). Because submissions are evaluated anonymously, the author's name should appear only on the title page. Please provide your full address, including e-mail, in all correspondence.

THE CALIFORNIA HISTORICAL SOCIETY
